

OF TUESDAY, MAY 3, SAYS:

The Supplementary Season at

Was Opened Last Night with the Production, for the First Time in this City, of W. D. Eaton's

A FARCICAL COMEDY IN FOUR ACTS.

The Piece was Received with

UPPROARIOUS LAUGHTER AND APPLAUSE,

Provoked by the

INNUMERABLE SITUATIONS OF THE MOST COMICAL NATURE

with which it abounds, and which follow on each other with such rapidity that the

It would be ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE TO ENUMERATE all the situations that came out of mistaken identities and other amusing causes. FRANK HARDENBERGH as Dr. Goodwin was INIMITABLE, and whenever he was on the stage

THE AUDIENCE WAS CONVULSED WITH LAUGHTER.

Mr. DAVIDGE was excellent as De Witt Briggs, and Mrs. GERMON'S make-up and acting as Mrs. Dr. Goodwin was

COMICAL IN THE EXTREME.

Miss ELLANI was full of fun as Julia Gale, and introduced two songs, one of which, from the "Pirates of Penzance," was encored; and the others generally were

SATISFACTORY IN THEIR PARTS.
